Ad Text ANOTHER BLACK MAN MURDERED IN POLICE CUSTODY. THINGS
HAVE BEEN VERY SILENT ON HIS BEHALF

The 31-year-old black man died Feb. 20 at Fairfield Medical center after he had a "medical episode" at the jail when deputies were moving Ariel J. Clark from one cell to another. According to police reports, Ariel J. Clark, 31, was too combative with officers and was threatening to kill them during his arrest.

On February 17, a motorist called 911 after interacting with Clark, reporting that Clark, who was driving his wife and two children from Buffalo to Texas, was threatening to kill him and his son. Clark's wife said that a man and his son began to argue with her husband, who had been acting wierd because he hadn't slept in five days. When the police arrived, Clark was arrested, taken to the Fairfield County Jail where he was placed in a restraint chair for his combative behavior. Three days after arriving in jail, Clark had some breathing difficulties and deputies started chest compression. But an hour later he was pronounced dead at a local hospital.

An investigation has been opened after the death of a Fairfield County Jail inmate.

Now the question is whether the jail's standard operating procedures were followed.

We would like to see a true picture of what he looked like after "fighting" with the police. Also, we would like to see the picture of him when he arrived at hospital. For now the only thing we know is that another black man died in police custody.
